Lambing time at Wissington is an annual event enjoyed by the many as they look on from the village. Lambing is a busy time for the farmers and is well worth the early 20th century house & barns being built from the 18th century.

In November 2018 there were many events held to mark the Anniversary. Contemporary which will be long remembered in Nayland. One of these was the tradition of a Ball of Remembrance on Gable Street where 52 crosses were erected to remember the men who served in the village during the war. A solitary silhouette of a soldier stood atop by its side.
